INTRODUCTION

This volume continues the publication of the records of the descendants of Samuel Tingley. This project was started by my mother, Mrs. Marian M. Frye, and without her research these books could not have been published. With the assistance of descendants in updating her notes, I am attempting to complete the publication of the records which she collected.

Any errors or additional information regarding the records in this volume or in previous volumes may be sent to Harold E. Frye, 20 Millbank Road, Poughkeepsie, NY 12603-5112, U.S.A. However, I should note that I expect to be moving to Rochester, MN and, at this time, I do not know what my address will be.

Readers of this book may be interested in the TINGLEYS UNITED ASSOCIATION. At this time, membership dues are $5 per year or $35 for a Life Membership. T-U News is published three times a year. Please note that I have no connection with T-U except as a member. Currently, the T-U President is Mr. Gordon Tingley, 1220 Jefferson, Beardstown, IL 62618. The T-U Secretary-Treasurer (to whom dues should be sent) is Mr. Irvine Tingley, 272 St. Andrews Court, Dublin, OH 43017.

09-01176-02 MARY ELIZABETH TINGLEY-ROSE-ROWLAND[10] (John[9], Samuel[8], Andrew[7], John[6], Joseph[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), 5459 Cartwright Lane E., Amlin, OH 43002, born Nov. 14, 1920 at Springfield, OH; married first July 20, 1940 at Lancaster, OH, Joseph Clarence, son of and ( ) Rose, of NY, born Apr. 10, 1913 at Glen Falls, NY. Joseph is a body fender specialist. Mary and Joseph were divorced May 7, 1947. Mary married second Mar. 20, 1954 at Richmond, IN, Richard Guy, Jr., son of Richard Guy and Ada (McCandless) Rowland, of London, OH, born Nov. 24, 1926 at London, OH; died Nov. 29, 1987 in Madison County Hosp., buried in Paint Township Cem. at London, OH. Richard, Jr. was a member of the American Legion Post No. 201, West Jefferson, and a 20 year veteran of the U.S. Army, having served in W.W. II, Korea, and Vietnam. Following his retirement from the army, he was employed for 13 years by the Liebert Corp. in Columbus until his retirement in 1982.[304]

Due to ill health (an enlarged heart) and marital difficulties, Mary's father had to have his 7 children put in the Children's Home in London, OH in 1931. The following information was supplied by Mary:

"Daddy lost the house due to not being able to keep it up and went to stay at the County Home outside of London, as he had no place else to go in his condition. They gave him a folding cot that he slept on in the furnace room. That was all they had at the time. Daddy contracted pneumonia later. We all remember Daddy walking back and forth from the home to the Children's Home every weekend to see us until he got so sick he couldn't. In the bed he was calling for Mom's mother, Ollie Dillion. Mr. Chenoweth said he called Grandma, she went there and got him, took him to her home in London. Mom was living there at the time. Seems Grandma was torn both ways, with Mom and Dad. She put him to bed and took care of him until he passed away in November 1931. She paid for his funeral and all. Grandma called the Children's Home a week before Thanksgiving and asked that they bring all the children to her house. She said that Daddy was very ill, had a short time to live and had asked to see us. They took us over, Daddy was leaning on about four pillows so he could breathe right. He talked to us saying that he was sorry the way we were living but that he knew we would be cared for right. He talked to my brother Melvin telling him that he was the oldest and should look out for the rest of us when he became older. Melvin promised him he would, but it was hard for him to talk as were all crying too much. Thanksgiving Day of 1931 Grandma took Daddy's dinner in to him and she knew right away what was happening. She asked him if she should call and have the children brought over. He said 'No Mother Ollie, don't bother, I see them already all done up in little packages.' He died right then. I remember the cold icy day that Grandma put him to rest, in her grave section at Deercreek Cemetery...

"Melvin was as curious as any young boy naturally is, or I should say, was. We had an old laundry building out back behind the kitchen of the Home, where they had those old washers, they were so huge. All the machinery was below the floor, which was just a crawl space. Some of the boys got to talking about a gun one of the older boys had hidden beneath the laundry. Somehow he was talked into going under the floor to look for the gun. When he was under there his shirt got caught on a clod on a wheel, wrapped him around and around, with his head and feet beating against the floor and ground. His screams were heard by all of us as we were outside playing. He had a sweater on that Grandma Dillion had gotten him for his birthday in June before and they had to cut his clothes off him to get him out. It is painful to remember them pulling him out of the small window with him crying about the sweater being cut. They took him to University Hospital in Columbus, his legs were broken, a broken arm, had surgery for his head, where a silver plate was put in at the time. Two days later he died. Mom was there with him through it all. He is buried on Grandma's lot also beside Daddy...

"Our world seemed to come to an end for awhile, then I remember going back to school, which was held on the premises. In the summer of 1934 our cousin Clyde Kendal Tingley came to the Children's Home to see us. He wanted to take all of us to his home in New Mexico to live with him and his wife Carrie. Several days later we were told that our mother would not sign adoption papers. In 1935 our sister Marjorie seemed to disappear from sight. We were told later that some nice family living in Columbus had adopted her. Mom said many times that she didn't sign any adoption papers for her. Since all papers before the adoption were removed we have never been able to find anything to prove otherwise. We do think we know how this was done but implicating other people involved would serve no purpose. I'm proud now that I spent as much time as I did with Mom the year before she passed away. I learned much about her feelings, her love and understanding that I had never truly known before. Today, we are scattered out trying to live the best life we can, having love and respect for all. This is one thing Dad instilled in us all our lives with him. May God rest the souls of our loved ones with hopes that we meet them later in another life."

"...I know I can say from my heart that Daddy did care for us and we never held it against him for putting us in the home. In those days there was no welfare or anything. I have close feelings for him to this day."

Davis (Min. Gosp.) at Los Angeles, CA, Leslie Bard, son of Nathan and Minnie May (Honens) Hollister, of Los Angeles, CA, born ca 1889 at , KS; died at Englewood, CA. Leslie's mother was born in MS, his father in IL. Bertha and Leslie separated. Bertha taught school for 35 years in the Inglewood Unified Schools; Leslie was a salesman.

The following letter from Bertha to her Aunt Ella (09-01343), written Jan. 15, 1928 at Inglewood, CA, was supplied by Violet Wade (a relative, but not a Tingley descendant):

"I was glad to hear from you. It seems we know so little about one another and since I'm away out here I see my relatives so little but am so very happy to hear from them. I write Uncle David continuously as he has been a great help to me and a father in many ways. I'm so sorry he's so poorly.

"Aunt Ola tells me that the Dr. says he'll never be much better. Poor Uncle Frank I'm afraid he is gone. I've been so worried over his disappearance but now I'm resigned to it. It's all so mysterious. We traced him all the way from St. Louis to Victorville and know positively that he arrived in Victorville about 1:30 A.M. Nov. 21, 1927. I talked with many of the passengers who rode with him and they said he was sick, had bowel trouble and the bus driver had to stop very often for him. They say he acted queerly but naturally he would because that would be embarrassing to have that trouble on a bus trip over that long distance. They were late on their schedules everywhere along the trip and never made their regular stops and were a day and a night behind time. Had lots of bus trouble and Uncle Frank had no patience with the driver because of the many stops for repairs so when he got to Victorville he told an old lady who was on the bus he'd try to get a train out and come on in to Los Angeles that night. She tried to persuade him to go on into the Hotel with the others but he would not so he set his hand bag with his personal belongings in up next to the door of the bank there in Victorville and she told him he'd better not leave it there and he said he'd only be gone a minute as the station was just across the street. She saw him start toward the station but he never was in the station and no tickets were sold either way that night or next morning. No one ever saw him again.

"We have searched every hospital of the State and Counties in California, Poor farms, Insane Asylums etc. I can't begin to tell you all the many things we have done. We have broadcasted and still are twice a week. We had the sheriff get out 40,000 circulars of his description and story of his disappearance. Every paper has had a story and we have had lots of calls to identify people in asylums, psycopathic wards but none were he.

"Luther came down from Grants Pass, Oregon, during the holidays and stayed two weeks, went up to this little town of Victorville which is a small place, one could count every house in it but it's on the desert with much sage brush for miles and miles. We fear he became unbalanced perhaps as many on the bus felt he was and wandered out on the desert and it's so cold out there in the winter that he would perish in one day or night and might not be found for months and might never be found. Luther searched the surrounding desert for miles but no clue. We are virtually at a stand still. Do not know what to do next.

"Poor Uncle Frank spent a winter with me two years ago and I perhaps knew him better than any of the others as he was happy here with me and I think was coming back to stay as he knew I'd take care of him. He came down here and had his teeth all pulled and was so sick...

"...I teach school, keep house, care for my step-father-in-law who is past 75 and do what ever else I can. Yes, I'm poor too but I find I can make ends meet by very careful saving.

"My mother-in-law passed away more than a year ago leaving a nice home to Harold and myself.

"Harold's father left us almost 10 years ago I'm sorry to say for a worldly life but I pray he may find himself and know the joy of living with the Lord.

"Uncle David is a good man and a smart man but he needs our prayers Aunt Ella. Pray for him and I'm sure the Lord will make known to us just what we can do to help him.

"I must close this lengthy letter but I shall be Oh, so glad to hear from you at any time and any questions you wish to ask I shall do my best to make you see and feel Uncle Frank's disappearance as we do. The bus driver seems to be all right. He was held and questioned, Of course we blame him for not reporting his disappearance but we all make mistakes.

"Luther has a fine christian wife and three girls and one boy and he's a fine father to them.

Lovingly Bertha"

McClellan burial grounds for Brunty family at . Clarence was Los Angeles County Administrator for the Survey Dept. Lucile and Clarence divorced in 1945 at Los Angeles, CA. Lucile married second Dec. 10, 1947 at Verdi Township, Washoe Co., NV, Frank Edward, son of and ( ) Dudley, of Los Angeles, CA, born at . Lucile was a retired nurse, living with her sister, Inez. The following was contributed by Inez Tingley Thoroughgood (10-02533) from family records and recollections:

When Lucile was a baby her parents took her to the St. Louis World's Fair. Her father rested her for a moment against the rim of the Liberty Bell, there on display. She stuck her baby fingers into the crack of the bell, and somehow this memory stayed with the father indelibly, for he was fond of recalling this memory.

Lucile's father, a teacher in the rural schools of Illinois, Kansas, and Oklahoma, was a pioneer advocate of visual education and the theory that one learns best by doing. He took his children travelling during summer vacations, traversing the various routes west, once over Parkman's Oregon Trail; also into Abe Lincoln's country, and Tingley country in Clark County, Illinois.

Lucile as a baby, a child, and a young woman was greatly admired for her great dark eyes and creamy smooth skin, being the first brunette baby in a blonde population. Her gentleness, her warmth, her outgoing, sweet disposition, and her love for people were ever her distinguishing qualities. It was she, in her convalescence from open heart surgery, who originally provided the motive for this study, and it was her dominating interest the last two years of her life.

Her love of color and hand craft was expressed in her clothes, her crocheting, which she learned from her Grandmother Emma Josephine Fowler as a young child, and in her colorful crocheted rugs.

She was foster mother to her delicate younger brother Blye Quannah, whom she carried constantly on her hip from the time she was six years old. I remember my mother expressing concern that Lucile would damage herself in his service. "He's not heavy, he's my brother," certainly applied to her. Her own schooling was delayed until she was seven, because my parents feared the communicable diseases so prevalent then among school children would be carried to the delicate baby.

This delay in her entrance to school put her in competition with her little sister, but this gave her no complex, for she was as proud of her sister's scholarship as if she had achieved it herself. In every photograph of their childhood they are shown hand-in-hand. In her last conscious hour this physical symbol of sixty-seven years of sisterhood obtained.

Valley Hosp., CA, heart condition; married first May 31, 1926 at Los Angeles, CA[224], Marvin Franklin, son of Frank E. and Marie (Guthrie) Thoroughgood, of , born Mar. 5, 1901 at Des Moines, IA; died ca 1955 at Los Angeles, CA, heart attack. Marvin was a retired Automobile Executive at Howard Automobile Co. of Los Angeles and San Francisco. Inez and Marvin divorced in 1936. Inez married second Aug. 20, 1960 in the Royal Suite of the Palace Hotel at San Francisco, CA, Thomas Peyton, II, son of Dr. Thomas Peyton, Sr. and Lulu (Chauncey) Manning, of AL, AZ, and Pasadena, CA, born July 14, 1929. Inez and Thomas divorced Nov. 28, 1965 and she legally took the name of Thoroughgood, under which she is known as teacher, poetess, and authoress. No children.

Inez graduated from high school in Ponca City, OK in 1922; received A.B. (history) with Honors in 1930 and M.A. (history) with Honors in 1950, both from UCLA, Westwood Campus. At that time she had the second highest grade point average of any graduate of the eight campuses of the Univ. of CA. She did graduate work toward a doctorate in Education at UCLA and Univ. of Southern CA, but it was interrupted by an automobile accident resulting in spinal injuries and was not completed.

Inez was a member of Phi Beta Kappa (National Honorary Literary Society), Pi Lambda Theta (Women's National Honorary Education Society), and Pi Gamma Mu (National Social Science Honor Society).

From Inez Tingley Thoroughgood records and recollections:

"Not all of my endeavors have been intellectual. In the war years of the 1940's I built single-handed a house with seven fireplaces, laid out its roads, and gardens, and maintained it by the dawnlight and twilight, for my days were spent in the classroom and my evenings in seminars. My seminar papers and my Master's Thesis were written by kerosene lamplight, for copper wiring was rationed and unobtainable, as were many other materials, during the war years.

"I am inclined to agree with Charles Lummis, California Editor of the 1920's, who also built his own house, when he said, 'Any damn fool can write a book, but it takes a real man to build a house.' To that, Charles, you may add, 'or woman'. I had not, previous to my construction career, so much as hung a picture for myself. What I did not know, and could not figure out or find in books or government publications, I sought first hand from the working men in the various trades, and I would not exchange what I learned from my construction experience for either of my two degrees. I called my house Beata Solitudo, but I have often thought that Las Palas Brunidas would have been more appropriate.

"I lived at Beata Solitudo 18 years, May 1943 to May 1961. During that period I fought 18 brush fires, one requiring 10 hours unrelieved on a fire hose. I am rabidly opposed to cigarettes. I retired from forest fires in May 1961 and from school teaching June, 1970. Both were valiant struggles.

"From 1970 to present, concurrently with nursing my sister, Lucile, through a difficult two year convalescence, I engaged in a study of genealogy. My mentor and guide has been my first cousin, eight times removed, Marian Frye, of the Tingley line, whose several volumned work, The Tingley Family Revised, has two volumes impressed. Not wishing my motherfolk to be unsung, I have undertaken this effort."

Bly married second at , Jane, daughter of and ( ) Fairchild, of , born at . From Inez Tingley Thoroughgood (10-02533) family records and letters:

Bly left school at 16, after his father died, to work as an office boy at Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co. at Pershing Square in downtown Los Angeles, where he worked his way up to Assistant Cashier. He left his position there to serve in the Mariana Islands, Ordinance Division of the Army, World War II. Upon return to civilian life he engaged in his own construction business, building unique residences from government salvage Quonset Huts. The creative strain of the Tingley family is noted here again, for so often it was said of him that he should have been an architect.

Bly was named by his self-appointed foster mother, his sister Lucile, who with a large impartiality, named him after her two best beaus in the first grade. Quanna is an Indian name. Bly dropped the terminal letters of both his names.

Jane had a partnership in a beauty shop, then was employed by the Gantner Construction Co. in South Laguna, CA.

09-01355-03 WILLIAM WADE TINGLEY[10] (Martin[9], Lewis[8], Jacob[7], John[6], Ebenezer[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), West Union, IL, born Sep. 4, 1908 at Annapolis, IL; married first July 27, 1926 at Marshall, IL, Rhoda Alice, daughter of Mitchell Everett and Edith Elma (Finney) Mills, of Casey, IL, born Dec. 9, 1907 at Toledo, IL; died Nov. 5, 1977 at Terre Haute, IN, buried in Lindley Cem. at West Union, IL. Rhoda was a hardware clerk. Wade married second Feb. 22, 1979 in a small chapel in Deer Crossing, CA, about 40 miles east of Fresno, CA, Eva, daughter of Jessie and Effie ( ) Murphy, of Annapolis, IL, born Oct. 15, 1909 at West Union, IL. Wade and Eva were childhood friends and attended grade school together in Annapolis, IL.

Wade was in partnership with Clyde Cook (10-02548) in Cook & Tingley Hardware in West Union, IL from 1953 until he retired in Nov. 1977. He continued to work at odd jobs until his health stopped his working in 1987. Nov. 1989 he entered a nursing home in Robinson, IL.

There was no rhyme nor reason to some of the nicknames in the family. Wade was called "Jim"; his father, Martin F., was called "Doc"; his son, Floyd, was called "Buddy".

Wade dropped out of school at the 8th grade to work with his father and his brother, Wayne, in his father's blacksmith shop in Marshall, IL. In 1930 he passed the exam to become a licensed "Horseshoer". He liked to make "Home Brew" for his own consumption. Since this was the time of prohibition, someone reported his brewing activities to the local sheriff. The Sheriff was a friend and an occasional consumer of a free brew, so he warned Wade of the complaint. With the news of a possible warrant he packed up the blacksmith tools, furniture, and family and moved to Tilton, AR in 1931 to live with "Doc", who had bought a farm and moved to Tilton one year earlier. He farmed during summer and cut timber to make railroad cross ties when he couldn't farm. In 1933 a blacksmith shop was built on the farm and Jim and Doc were back in the blacksmithing as well as farming. In 1935 Jim and his family moved to Johnson's Plantation in Levesque, AR, where Jim took a job as Plantation Blacksmith. His pay for the job was a milk cow, a 3 room house and $1 a day. Rhoda and Buddy worked on the plantation as field hands to make extra money. In 1936 both Doc's and Jim's families decided to move back to West Union, IL and open a blacksmith shop together. Jim and his family moved to Terre Haute, IN in 1939 where he worked as an auto and truck mechanic until he went into the hardware business.[201]

09-01391-03 VERA ESTA (BABE) JONES-CROSS[10] (Emma[9], John[8], Elizabeth[7], John[6], Ebenezer[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Marshall, AR, born Jan. 27, 1895 at Garfield, NE; married Apr. 11, 1916 at Lexington, NE, Willard Ray, son of Fred W. and Jesse E. (Carmen) Cross, of Los Angeles, CA and North Platte, NE, born May 14, 1893 at Moorefield, NE; died Dec. 27, 1968 at Harrison, AR hosp., buried in Canaan Cem., Marshall, AR. Ray was a farmer, Moorefield postmaster, and a chicken rancher (Hemet, CA). Esta is now living at the Marshall Nursing Center, Marshall, AR, confined to a wheel chair after a hip injury.

A couple of years after their marriage, Esta and Ray moved to a house in Moorfield, where all three of their children were born. In 1927 or 1928 they moved to North Platte, then to Chicago in 1936, to Hemet, CA in 1941, and to Marshall, AR about 1956.

The following letter was written by Esta to her parents the day after her wedding:

"We're home now so will try and tell you about our place. We didn't get here until 11:30 last night and believe me I was glad to get here.

"The house isn't half as bad as Ray tried to make me think. Its pretty small, but it's a cute little place. It seems like all there is to do here is sleep and eat because there isn't a very big place to get dirty. I couldn't clean up much today because we didn't have the dresser yet and no place to put things, but guess we'll get one tomorrow. Ray had the stove, table and chairs and bed here. The stove is a small one but it got the place so darned hot last night that I couldn't sleep...

"I went with Ray to get a load of hay today. I enjoyed it immensely. It was only about a half a mile to go.

"I've got more milk to use than I know what to do with and some cream and nothing to use it on. We didn't get very many groceries when we were in Brady because we thought it would rain before we got home. But it didn't...

"Ray hung the pictures this afternoon and they look pretty swell. Planted some flowers this evening. Didn't do much else all day only sleep and eat. We were so tired riding so far and the wind was blowing 40 miles an hour.

"I nearly forgot to tell you where we were married. It was at the Christian Minister's home, Rev. Kemp. Mrs. Koch and Mrs. Stedman were there. They were very nice people. I suppose Pa will have to see the bible before he'll be sure that we're married because he said he would not know we're married if we didn't stay at home so some of you could see it. But we are anyway and it wasn't half as bad an operation as I thought it was going to be.

"Well guess I'll ring off for this time and don't know how soon you'll get another one because you know we can't go to town every day.

"I meant to give Baby those roller skates, but didn't get around to it so you can.

"Both of you be sure and write and tell me everything."

Wilbur's farm was purchased by a big farmer, who destroyed the buildings and trees, leaving only land.

From the Aug. 23, 1973 Leader Enterprise:

"Wilbur Tingley...is probably alive today because his stock dog Fritz saved him from being trampled by an angry bull.

"Tingley, who lives on a farm northwest of Montpelier, kept a herd of dairy cows until recently. On the morning of June 15, he was bringing in the herd for milking, along with the herd sire, who was running with the cows.

"...the bull, instead of following behind the heifer, came at him. The bull knocked Tingley down and started to attack him, when Tingley called 'Get him, Fritz' to the dog, who was helping him with the cows.

"Fritz took charge of the situation, and herded the bull toward the barnyard, grabbing on to his hind leg.

"...Tingley went on to milk the cows and do his other morning's work, not even telling his wife at first about the incident.

"...When Dr. Brown saw the X-rays, he found that Tingley had four broken ribs, as well as the cut lip and an eye injury. He put Tingley in the hospital, where he stayed for a week.... It was the first time he had ever been hospitalized for illness or injury."

09-01407-01 CLELA LORRAINE TINGLEY-LUTES[10] (Jared[9], Jared[8], Samuel[7], Josiah[6], Nathaniel[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Hunter, OK, born Apr. 19, 1889 at Lamar, Prowers Co., CO; died May 9, 1938 at Hunter, OK, myocardial degeneration after strokes; married Apr. 21, 1907 at Eddy, Grant Co., OK, Robert Elcaine, son of Joseph Alexander and Tennessee Elizabeth (Younger) Lutes, of Lamont, Grant Co., OK, born Oct. 11, 1885 at St. Joseph, Buchanan Co., MO; died Mar. 21, 1953 at Lamont, OK, heart attack[744]; both are buried in the Lamont Cem. at Lamont, OK. Robert married second Apr. 20, 1942 at Wichita, KS, Maymie Mae, daughter of Samuel and Rose (Willie) Dorsett, widow of Tom Gautier of Lamont, OK, with 3 grown sons (twins Howard and Tommie, and Charlie). Mayme died Nov. 9, 1982 at Garber, OK, buried in the Lamont Cem. at Lamont, OK. Robert was a farmer. Clela was a teacher.

Clela, the oldest of 10 children, was born in Colorado where her parents settled after their marriage in Ohio. She spent her first 2 years in Colorado where her father farmed, but he found the winters too harsh. Her third year she lived in Kansas where he worked on a ranch until the opening to settlement of the Cherokee Outlet in Oklahoma Territory of the Louisiana Purchase. He made the "Great Run" into the "Territory" and staked a claim in County "L", now known as Grant, 4 miles east of present day Lamont. He sent for his family and, with all their belongings, they arrived by train at the nearest station, Honeywell, KS where he had entered "Oklahoma Territory" at 12:00 noon, Sep. 16, 1893 at the report of a gun with 100,000 entering from the Kansas border on the north heading south, and 75,000 entering at the southern border 58 miles away heading north.

Clela attended school at Liberty, district 123, 1 & 1/2 miles south of the homestead, completing her studies and taking her County Diploma exam at 14. At 17 she passed her teachers exam and taught one year at Banner, district #94, where the Lutes children attended. Robert and Clela applied for a marriage license on her 18th birthday, and 3 days later, at the end of the school term, they were married at the home of her parents in Eddy.

They made their home on the Lutes homestead southwest of Lamont where Robert farmed wheat and watermelons and raised cattle and pigs. Clela was extremely talented in garment construction and was noted for the lovely clothing she made for her daughters as well as for the ladies from town. She had a big garden, raised chickens for meat and eggs, and milked cows for butter, cream, and milk. The vegetables and meat were canned for winter use, and any extra produce was sold in Lamont. During these busy and difficult times in rural Oklahoma, Clela was a faithful church worker and saw that her children attended regularly.

Robert took a job with the railroad, moving the family to the state of Washington. The adjustment being too great, they returned to Oklahoma. In 1925 Robert bought a farm southwest of the Lutes homestead, but in 1932 the "Great Depression" took it. They moved into the little town of Hunter in Garfield Co. to the south where Robert worked on the WPA program. Clela's health failed and she began having strokes. In 1936, Dorothy and Etha returned home to care for their mother until her death in 1938.

Robert eventually moved from Hunter to Wichita, KS, where he worked in the aircraft industry. He remarried in 1942 and moved to Lamont where they operated a service station. In March 1953 he suffered a heart attack and died. Maymie continued living in their home until ill health in her advanced years necessitated full time care and she died of heart failure in the Garber Nursing Home in 1982.[792]

09-01407-02 EVERETT C. (i.o.) TINGLEY[10] (Jared[9], Jared[8], Samuel[7], Josiah[6], Nathaniel[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Enid, Garfield Co., OK, born Sep. 20, 1890 at Lamar, Prowers Co., CO; died Nov. 30, 1922 at Enid, OK, cerebellar sarcoma (brain cancer); married Aug. 24, 1913 at Wichita, KS, Oletha, daughter of Russell Lane and Sarah Ann (Foreman) Dobbs, of Eddy, OK, born June 29, 1894 at Rockford, Gage Co., NE; died Nov. 11, 1980 at Enid, OK; both are buried in Lamont Cem. at Lamont, OK. Everett was a public accountant, having graduated from Wichita Business College May 17, 1913; Letha, a cosmetologist. Letha married second Apr. 29, 1925 at Perry, Noble Co., OK, Henry Ara, son of Smith and Elizabeth (Raines) Guthrie. Ara was a mechanic; he died Mar. 1, 1971 at Enid, OK, buried in Lamont Cem. at Lamont, OK. Letha and Ara had no children.

Everett was the second child born in Colorado, where he lived his first year, at which time his family moved to Kansas to escape the harsh Colorado winters. During his third year he moved to the Oklahoma Territory homestead his father had staked in the Cherokee Strip "Great Race". He attended Liberty School, tested for his County Diploma at age 13 and passed. At 19, he passed teacher certification and taught 2 years in country schools. Letha passed teacher certification in 1913.

Everett and Letha were married while he was attending Wichita Business College. After graduation, they remained in Wichita, where he worked for Wichita Milling Co., Wells Fargo, and a Wichita bank. Then they moved to Guthrie, where he worked in banking. On June 5, 1917, in accordance with the proclamation of the President of the U.S., in Ward 5, Co. of Logan, State of Oklahoma, he registered as Everett Clarence Tingley.

Everett's work load necessitated moving to Oklahoma City, where their first child was born. He became one of the first public accountants in OK, working for Oklahoma Peerless Oil & Refining Co. and the Ardmore-Akron Tire & Rubber Co. in Ardmore, and Midstate Petroleum Co., White Rock Oil Co., Kool Kola Co., and Wood Bros. Co. in Oklahoma City. They then moved to Garber and lived on an oil lease while working for Cooty Oil, until moving to Enid where he worked for Quadrangle Petroleum Co. and served as secretary of the Board to Burk-Fox Oil & Gas Co. of Oklahoma City.

After Everett became ill they traveled to MN where Letha and Helen lived near the hospital during the winter while he was undergoing tests, then surgery, at the Mayo Brothers' Clinic. He recovered from surgery and they returned to OK. When it became evident that he was growing weaker, they moved to his parents' home in Lamont, where their second child was born. Seven months later, "Cerebellar Sarcoma" took his life. Letha returned to Enid with the two young children and worked as a cosmetologist. She was introduced to Ara by a patron. Three years later they were married.[792]

09-01407-03 ALLIE LEOTA TINGLEY-STRANGE[10] (Jared[9], Jared[8], Samuel[7], Josiah[6], Nathaniel[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), 3125 E. Boston, Wichita, KS 67211, born May 23, 1892 at Lakin, Kearny Co., KS; married June 17, 1917 at Enid, Garfield Co., OK, Walter S., son of Sidney Walter and Mary (Anderson) Strange, of Ringwood, Garfield Co., OK, born Nov. 25, 1894 at , MN; died July 24, 1982 at Wichita, KS, cancer, buried in the Old Mission Cem. at Wichita, KS. Walter's mother was born in Copenhagen, Denmark. Allie was a teacher; Walter operated a chain of filling stations.

Allie was the third child, the only child born in Kansas. She was just a year old when her father made the race into Oklahoma Territory and staked a quarter-section of land suitable for growing wheat, east of present day Lamont, OK. She attended Liberty School, district #123, passing her County Diploma exam in 1906. At 20 she passed the teaching exam and taught at country schools in districts 48, 73, 75, and 125, earning monthly wages of $40, 50, 50, and 60. It was during this time that she was staying with her younger sister, Mary, and Mary's husband brought a friend home to meet her. She was in work clothes with her hair pinned up, helping with chores, when they arrived. She just knew she'd never see him again, but she was wrong. He called again and courtship began; marriage followed. He was employed by Phillips Petroleum Co., which necessitated their living in various states. Their first home was in Hollywood, CO, followed by Ft. Smith, AR, then Dover and Enid, OK, where their 3 children were born, then into Kansas, where they lived at Winfield, where their 3 children graduated high school, and last to Wichita where he established his own bakery and grocery business. When his son returned from the service, they went into business together, owning and operating a chain of service stations in the Wichita area.

It was during this time that they were hit by a car going the wrong way on a one-way street. His son was killed and Walt's injuries necessitated retirement. He then worked with the Gideons, spreading the Gospel door to door until his death. Walt and Allie were both faithful and active members of the Wichita Bible Church in Wichita.

Allie now lives alternately with her daughters in Kansas City and Wichita, and is 99 years young. She is the only living child of Jared and Carrie (Johnson) Tingley.[792]

09-01407-04 MARY JANE TINGLEY-McCOMBS[10] (Jared[9], Jared[8], Samuel[7], Josiah[6], Nathaniel[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Blackwell, Kay Co., OK, born Nov. 3, 1894 at Eddy, Grant Co., OK; died Oct. 5, 1959 at Blackwell, OK, heart attack; married Sep. 7, 1915 at Medford, OK, Clifton Clemons, son of Charlie and Anna (Small) McCombs, of Eddy, OK, born Jan. 23, 1896 at Medford, Grant Co., OK; died Nov. 26, 1968 at Blackwell, OK, heart attack[744]; both are buried in the Eddy New Home Cem. near Lamont, OK. Mary Jane was a teacher; Clifton, a farmer. Clifton married second Ruby (Spencer) Meade, of Blackwell, OK.

Mary, the 4th child, was the first child born on the homestead in their first home, a sod house, in Indian Territory that her father had built on the land he staked in the "Great Race" into the Cherokee Outlet. She attended Liberty school, district #123, testing for her County Diploma in 1908. She passed her teaching exam in 1913 and taught at Flower Valley school, district 75, for several years, but quit teaching after her marriage to Cliff.

When Mary was expecting their first child she suffered uremic poisoning that became so severe, intensive methods had to be utilized to save her life. She was wrapped in hot wet blankets; consequently, the baby was stillborn. While carrying the second baby the uremic poisoning was not as severe, and methods of treatment had changed. The baby boy, Clifton Leo, lived and was their only heir.

Cliff and Mary made their home at Eddy until moving to Enid and from there to Dover, where he farmed, then to the Tingley farm west of Lamont, until the farm was sold at which time they moved northwest of Blackwell to the Ghormley farm, beside the Chikaska River, where they lived the remainder of their married life. This farm had pecan trees and many "pecanings" were enjoyed there.

Mary suffered a light stroke in the late 1950's. She later died in her sleep of heart failure in the home in which they had lived so many years.[792]

Children[792]

09-01407-05 CECILE MAE TINGLEY-NIEHAUS[10] (Jared[9], Jared[8], Samuel[7], Josiah[6], Nathaniel[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Enid, Garfield Co., OK, born Feb. 18, 1897 at Eddy, Grant Co., OK; died June 26, 1985 at Enid, OK, stroke; married June 9, 1927 at Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., IA, Herman Henry (Pete), son of August E. and Anna (Kirchoff) Niehaus, of Enid, OK, born Feb. 3, 1902 at California, Moniteau Co., MO[744]; died Aug. 30, 1981 at Enid, OK, cerebral infarction; both are buried in Memorial Park Cem. at Enid, OK. Cecile was a teacher, nurse's aide, bookkeeper, notary, and stenographer; Pete owned and operated a dry cleaning business, then a used car lot. No children.

Cecile was the 5th child, the first child born in a dug-out on the homestead her father had staked in the "Great Race" into Oklahoma Territory of the Cherokee Strip. She attended school at Liberty, district #123, and after completing her education she tested and passed her teaching exam in 1916 and taught in various country schools in Grant County. She quit teaching to attend business college in Enid. After graduation she worked at Fidelity Motors, then Money Motors, until she married at age 30. She continued her career pursuit and became a nurse, public notary, and was secretary to her husband in his dry cleaning business, used car lot, oil interests, and stock market activities in his climb to success.

During her life she suffered a broken neck on an outing, had thyroid surgery, and prior to her strokes suffered leg circulation problems that curtailed her standing, walking, and sitting for extended lengths of time, but she never lost her sense of humor or ability to laugh.

In her later years, she did much charity work. She was artistic and talented and was well known for her holiday and special occasion wall hangings, table decorations and ceramics. She was active in the First Baptist Church of Enid, Bass Baptist Memorial Hosp. Auxiliary, Eastern Star, and White Shrine; and was responsible for many nieces participating in the Order of Rainbow for Girls, and nieces and nephews attending the Baptist Church vacation Bible school during the summers. When a family member was in the hospital in Enid, her home was open at all times; and she was always right there in the hospital to help any way she could. After Pete's death, she began having strokes and had to be admitted to a nursing home in Enid, where she eventually died.[792]

09-01407-06 CORA ESTHER TINGLEY-SMITH-BLACK[10] (Jared[9], Jared[8], Samuel[7], Josiah[6], Nathaniel[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Lamont, Grant Co., OK, born Feb. 1, 1899 at Eddy, Grant Co., OK; died Jan. 15, 1977 at Enid, OK, strokes for 9 years; married first , 1918 at , Dewey, son of Dave and Allie (Thorp) Smith, of Lamont, OK, born , 1898 at Bonnieville, KY; died , 1958 at Compton, CA, stroke. Esther and Dewey divorced Aug.

11, 1918. Esther married second Feb. 23, 1924 at Wellington, KS[760], Elmer Ralph, son of Arthur E. and Nettie Ann (Moree) Black, of Lamont, OK, born May 22, 1895 at Lamont, OK; died Feb. 11, 1980 at Lamont, OK, heart failure, after several years of failing health; both are buried in Lamont Cem. at Lamont, OK. Elmer was retired and took care of Esther, who had a stroke in Nov. of 1968 and was helpless. Esther was a teacher; Elmer was a farmer, machinist, and for a while was acting postmaster at the Lamont post office, and he retired from the school system as head mechanic. No children.

Esther was the 6th child, and the first child born in the frame home built by her father on the homestead which he staked in the "Great Race" into Oklahoma Territory of the Cherokee Strip. She attended Liberty school district #123, Lamont High School district #95, and Tonkawa Preparatory school at Tonkawa, OK, now known as Northern Oklahoma College. She passed her teaching exam in 1917 and taught at districts 73, 76, 83, and 85. After her marriage she continued to teach in Oklahoma while Dewey attended Wichita Business College in Kansas. They were divorced in August, 1918 and he remarried in Kansas. In the courthouse records is a second marriage license for Esther and Dewey, dated October 11, 1918, but "license not issued" is written across it.

Esther continued to teach and, in 1924, married Elmer and they made their home in Lamont. She and Elmer loved children and their home was home-away-from-home for all nieces and nephews. She worked throughout her married life. When the hot lunch program in the public schools began, she was in charge of the lunch room at Lamont. She clerked in a local furniture store for years, and when times got hard, she worked without pay and paid in her own social security. She retired when the store went out of business. For her loyalty, the owner completely furnished their home with carpeting and new furniture.

Esther was responsible for most of the Tingley family reunions. She loved to hostess and loved a house full of people. Their house was the common meeting place of childhood and school friends. She was visiting with a superintendent from her teaching years when she suffered her first stroke in her living room; afterward her health slowly declined.[792]

09-01407-07 HOWARD (nmn) TINGLEY[10] (Jared[9], Jared[8], Samuel[7], Josiah[6], Nathaniel[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Fort Smith, Sebastian Co., AR, born Apr. 19, 1901 at Eddy, Grant Co., OK; died July 3, 1984 at Fort Smith, AR, stroke, buried in U.S. Military Cem. at Fort Smith, AR; married Sep. 2, 1942 at Fort Smith, AR, Elizabeth (Betty) A. (Mrs. Fooks, with two children, a boy and a girl), daughter of David and Permela ( ) McInturf, of Boone Co., AR, born July 23, 1899 at Boonville, Logan Co., AR; died Oct. 30, 1984 at Fort Smith, AR, buried in Roselawn Cem. at Fort Smith, AR. Howard was a glass worker.[744] No children.

Howard was the 7th born and second child born in the frame home on the homestead on the Cherokee Strip in Oklahoma Territory after the "Great Race" of 1893. He attended Liberty school, district #123, and after his school years helped with the farming until they moved into town when he began working in the oil fields.

While young, Howard suffered an infection that made the left side of his face and neck swell. When the doctor lanced it, he touched a nerve, causing the left side of his mouth to droop slightly. When he was a young adult, his car was struck by another car at the then, blind intersection one mile west of Lamont. He received a severe blow behind his left ear that almost caused his death. He survived, but was never the same as before the wreck. When he was 18 years old, his parents left the farm and moved into Lamont. When his parents moved to Enid to allow the youngest sister to attend Phillips Univ., he moved with them and stayed with his mother after the divorce and until her death. He was drafted and served in W.W. II, was mustered out in Arkansas and stayed. He worked in a wood factory where barrels were made, but was allergic to something in the wood processing that caused a red raw rash on his hands. He then went to work in a glass factory where he met his wife, Betty, who had charge of the snack concession.

Howard made lifetime friendships. When he had to be put in a nursing home, one of his co-workers from the glass plant was in the same home by this friend's request. His wife, Betty, eventually was admitted to the same nursing home. Her hearing was gone and her spine was deteriorated and deformed, but she also was in possession of her faculties. Their eyes welcomed with warm expressions the family members who drove to Ft. Smith to visit them. Neither was able to communicate at the end.[792]

09-01407-08 GAYLORD (nmn) TINGLEY[10] (Jared[9], Jared[8], Samuel[7], Josiah[6], Nathaniel[5], Ebenezer[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Lamont, Grant Co., OK, born June 17, 1902 at Eddy, Grant Co., OK; died Dec. 13, 1987 at Enid, Garfield Co., OK, stroke, buried in Lamont Cem. at Lamont, OK; married first Feb. 3, 1924 at Medford, Grant Co., OK, Esther Lucille, daughter of George Edward and Sarah Elizabeth (White) Shrubshall, of Lamont, OK, born Oct. 4, 1905 at Lamont, OK; died Sep. 9, 1988 at Garber, Garfield Co., OK, buried at Pond Creek, Grant Co., OK. Gaylord and Esther divorced Nov. 23, 1931 at Medford, OK. Gaylord married second July 28, 1933 at Enid, OK, Lucille Dorothea, daughter of John (nmn) and Gertrude (nmn) (Tammen) Arends, of Lamont, OK, born Feb. 27, 1917 at Danforth, Iroquois Co., IL. Gaylord was a wheat farmer. Lucille is a retired teacher.[201] Lucille lives at 334 W. Lincoln, Lamont, OK 74643.

Gaylord was the 8th child, the 3rd born in the frame home on the homestead in Oklahoma Territory of the Cherokee Strip that his father staked in the "Great Race" in 1893. He attended Liberty school, district #123, until he completed the requirements for his County Diploma. His responsibilities and work habits began in his early years as they did for his older brothers and sisters. Once, Gaylord and his brother Howard, ages 8 and 10, were sent across the river, 1 & 1/2 miles south of the homestead, to gather firewood. Before they finished loading the box-wagon, a big rain occurred upstream, causing a terrible flood in this lower region of the Salt Fork of the Arkansas River. Night fall came and the boys did not return. Their father went to the river and found it swollen to the top of the banks, saw no sign of them and could not summon them by hollering, and returned home. Just before sunrise, the little boys drove in with their wagon full of dry wood. When they had finished their task, they found the river flooded and knew not to try to cross the ford. They drove the team and wagon along the river for 7 miles, as the crow flies, to the Billings-Nardin road, crossed the river on the bridge, then followed it back to the ford where they turned north and found their way home in the dark, in unknown, untamed, open country.

At 17, Gaylord was foreman of the Grant Co. bridge construction crew. He was the first to use cross-braces on the pilings, which explains why none of his bridges ever washed away. The technique became standard and is continued to this day.

His first love was farming, beginning during the depression years by plowing for $1 per acre, furnishing his own equipment and fuel. He rented land and began tenant farming, and expanded to as much as 1,000 acres in the 1950's. Land owners sought him to farm their land. He practiced soil conservation long before it became a government program. Since it was impossible to leave the ground fallow every 7 years as the Bible instructs, he left only parts of each farm fallow each year, thus each landlord shared the same loss and gain. He knew the soil of each farm and adjusted his farming methods and timing accordingly, which prevented all wheat from being ripe at the same time. After harvest, he sought out the owners for the yearly accounting.

He was self-driven and almost "tireless" when he farmed. He worked around the clock. When he tired, he would lie down under a tree and if none close by, he'd crawl under the tractor, take a nap, awake and get back on the tractor and continue until he tired again. He never deliberately destroyed an animal or bird nest. He would stop his tractor, move the nest or animal, or simply work around them, as certain animal mothers will abandon their young if the nest is disturbed.

During winters, he raised cattle on wheat pasture, was a heavy equipment operator on pipe lines in northern IL and IA; and when the construction of cement grain elevators (Prairie Castles) began, he worked as a hoist operator. When he quit working away from home, his hands had operated the controls of the hoists that lifted half the cement of 19 grain elevators, the largest being "the Largest in the World", at Enid, OK. He designed the "bucket" for hauling the cement in grain elevator construction used by all companies. His expertise was such that employers sought him out to work. If his farming schedule permitted, he accepted. Usually, they would tell him to report to work when the farming allowed and promised him he could leave when farming responsibility mandated. While working away from home, his wife and son carried on the farm activities and livestock care. He kept the machinery, trucks and cars in top condition so they wouldn't experience problems during his absence. He intended his family would not "want" during his absence.

After the 3 children were grown and gone from home, he sent his wife to college, saying he'd married her right out of high school and she never had a chance to continue her education. It was a wise decision, she graduated with honors in 3 1/2 years with an M.S. in Elementary Education, and a minor in Art. She too was talented and her reputation with children followed her from teaching Sunday School classes for 26 years and private kindergarten for 5 years. After graduation she taught at Garber for 7 years, until she fell on the ice and suffered a concussion. She recovered in a year and another school called her to work. She taught students with learning disabilities at Pond Creek/Hunter for 8 years. She retired from teaching in 1985. Gaylord planted his last wheat crop on crutches in Oct. 1986. On Dec. 9 he had a total left-knee replacement. Dec. 10 his heart fibrillated and he suffered a massive stroke. He lived 5 days on I.V.s and a breathing machine with lungs so strong he "over-rode" it. He lingered until his lungs filled with fluid. His wife and 3 children stayed with him to the end.[792]

Naomi's father was b. Oct. 19, 1874 at Ashkum, IL, d. July 4, 1963 at Englewood, CO; her mother was b. Aug. 20, 1881 at Adams Co., NE, d. July 10, 1963 at Englewood, CO. Willis was a farmer.[201]

The following excerpts are from a eulogy written by Doris Young Nordloh:

"Willis's dad came from Germany when he was 18 years old and soon settled in Boulder as a truck gardener.... He and Dad's mom worked very hard to feed their seven children. In 1910 they homesteaded south of Bennett, dug a dugout house, planted a garden, some fruit trees, lilac bushes, and called it home. They established a dairy there later...

"Willis and Naomi Irene Mennenga were married January 9, 1924. To this union were born two children, Doris Lynn and Homer Eugene.

"We lived in the depression times, south of Bennett, in a little sod house on Kiowa Creek. Many years it seemed impossible to make a living. We could expect hail - if it ever did rain. Our main diet was potatoes and beans, Mother's good bread, and peaches. Dad raised chickens and sold the eggs for grocery money. He dug coal out of the creek bank for fuel and there was plenty of wood and corn cobs for heat. We all loved to read, so would spend cold winter nights reading around the stove. We moved to another farm north of Strasburg in 1942.

"Willis had a beautiful singing voice and we had many happy times with Mother at the piano, Dad and Homer singing, Doris with her mandolin and Mother's parents listening.

"Dad was a loyal Seventh-Day-Adventist. He helped build the Byers SDA church in the late 40's. He was song leader for many years, a Deacon, and an Elder. After he retired from farming he worked for the Strasburg Telephone Company for many years, retiring from his position there when he was 76 years of age. Mother and Dad moved from the farm to a new home in Strasburg in the spring of 1970.

"On his birthday in 1986 Dad had the first of a series of operations for Melanoma cancer which had started on his neck below his left ear. We were told then that he had a maximum of three years to live. He started radiation treatments for a brain tumor a few days after Christmas 1987 and those treatments knocked him for a loop inally passing away in a center that was only two blocks from Homer and Jeannie's home.

"Willis was known for the beautiful Dahlia's that he grew in Strasburg. He shared these generously with the different businesses and the museum in town. He was a 'rock hound' who polished many rocks, learned to facet gem stones and make spheres. He made about 40 windmills out of agate that he gave to those who admired them.

"Everyone who knew him loved him, even if he wasn't perfect."

01 Iva Dell, b. July 3, 1890, Leadville, CO; unm.;
d. , 1979.

Iva lived in Pasadena, CA until Jan. 23, 1976, when she moved to Hollenbeck Home, Los Angeles, CA.

The following is from a letter from Iva Dell to Irene, written May 25, 1973:

I am going to try to tell you what I know about the Stearns which isn't too much and I haven't many dates to verify what I do know.

Grandfather (Silas D.) Stearns built a nice home in Deshler, Ohio where his family of first wife Hannah, Mertie, Lela, and Harold were all alive. Lela died - don't know date, grandmother died, and he lost everything when the lumber he had cut could not be delivered to mill due to an early spring thaw which kept the logs from being shot down a snow shoot. He never really recovered his business ability again - lost the lovely home and after Lela and Hannah, his wife, died, Mertie went to Illinois for a time to live with her mother's people, the Jordans. Harold, the 3 months old baby when his mother died was taken (I think) by Orrin and wife.

About a year after Hannah's death he married Jennie Newton. Orrin wanted to keep Harold and grandfather would have given him to Orrin, but 15 year old Mertie, my mother, made such a fuss about it that he had to bring him back to his new wife.... A friend of both women came over to see her the day before the wedding and had a quiet talk with her - telling her what a fine person Jennie Newton was - fine background and family, etc. At last mother said "Well, do I have to call her 'Mother'"? She said "No, but your little brother will never know another mother - it would be better if you did for his sake." She did that by saying "Go to your mother" till she got used to saying it. And she did live with them, I think, till they moved to Leadville, Colorado. Part of the time she was attending Ada Normal School and Ohio Wesleyan College in Delaware - so think there were long periods when she was away from the home. She was there when some of Jennie's children were born, but who they were I don't know. Jennie was a good cook and a good business woman for her day as she'd helped her brother in his office. Mother had learned to sew so she did that and didn't do much cooking after her mother's death. When her first baby, Roy, came, Harold was just 2 years older, so he became the oldest son. Grandmother had her children approximately 2 years apart till Ralph came.

They moved to Leadville, Colorado in the 1880's, but I don't know the exact date nor how long they lived there. Mother came out there in 1888 to visit and got a chance to teach there so stayed. She met my father, Wildman Murphy, in a M.E.S.S. class. He was teacher and YMCA secretary in Leadville. It was a wild mining camp then. Girls could not be out at night alone so when the class had socials he would take 3 or 4 girls home, among them Mertie Stearns. They were married Apr. 1889 at 6 am Monday morning after Easter and boarded a scenic narrow gage R.R. for Denver and from there to YMCA convention to NYC. They stopped over Sunday to visit friends because they didn't want to travel on Sunday. The train they left was in a wreck and her wedding trunk was in it. She went before a notary and gave a declaration of contents - didn't miss anything but thread, etc. They stopped in Iowa after convention and weeks after their return to Colorado they received original contents of trunk which was smashed but ropes held contents together. So they put things in a new trunk and sent it on. Dad always said he had proof women could get along on a trip with much less than they thought - he had proof - even on a wedding trip.

I was born in Leadville. Dad's health broke and he had to leave 10,000 foot altitude. He went to Salt Lake City to open a new YMCA when I was 3 months old - about Sept. or Oct. 1890. After some months - I have no date - his health broke again. They feared TB. It was winter and he was told to leave Salt Lake before another blizzard. He went to St. George, Utah, which has a very mild climate, but he had to go 150 miles by stage and he nearly froze to death. Mother got a substitute teaching job in S.L.C. When he returned they had to leave S.L.C. Mother got a teaching job in a M.E. mission school in Payson, Utah where they moved when I was 3 years.

There the M.E. Supt. encouraged him to study for ministry as he was recuperating and as he was able. He did so and at length became pastor of mission. Later, after 2 other pastorates in M.E. mission, trouble arose in M.E. work and he was asked to work with Presbyterians, which he did - at American Fork, Utah and then again at Payson, after M.E. work was all closed. From there they retired to Pres. Retirement Homes called Monte Vista Grove Homes, in 1927. We left for a trip to northwest on July 5, 1927 after spending the 3rd and 4th in S.L.C. resting from strenuous job of packing, etc. We visited Mother's brothers Roy Newton and Lucien, whom she hadn't seen for years. It was a wonderful summer. We also visited her sister Nettie Bell in eastern Washington on Columbia River. Newton lived in Portland with his wife Bertha and two boys then. Roy lived just outside Portland with his wife Fay and 3 children, 2 boys and a girl. Lucien lived up on Puget Sound and we had a fine time with his family - wife Maude and four girls. It was Sept. before they reached Pasadena, but applications had been passed on so they moved in at once - into one side of a new duplex where Dad lived till 1947 and Mother till 1958.

Harold and wife Jeanne with 2 small children moved from Bellingham, Washington to Salt Lake City in 1906 where he got a position in city schools. He made the move because of Jeanne's health. She died there and he lived there till his daughter and husband moved him to Salinas, California where both were principals in schools.... He died in Salinas, but was laid away in S.L.C. His son Lewis has lived in Los Angeles and vicinity for years. He is a real estate man in Camarillo, California and his wife teaches there. Harold was a very successful principal in S.L.C. and was properly wined and dined when he retired. His daughter Helen is now retired and she was especially honored at that time.

I haven't told of Grandfather's move to southwest Washington and his carpenter aid in building a new town - now gone. Its name was Willapa - an oyster and fishing village. From there, when most of family were grown, they moved to Bellingham where he still worked as a carpenter. I spent a year there with them when Dr. said I had a bad heart and must go to sea level. There I learned to love grandmother very dearly. Newton, Nettie, Lucien, and Ralph were all at home - Lucien, Ralph, and I in school, Nettie in Normal. Grandfather Newton and Nettie's fiancee, Roy Lilly, were there working. Grandmother cooked and kept house for us all. I was there from July 1901 till Oct. 1902 and had chicken pox while there. Harold lived there then too and all pitched in as they could and helped build them a new home. It wasn't quite finished when I left. It was a wonderful education for an only child and I've thanked the Lord for it many times. How I loved grandmother! I do yet! They were all fine people and grew into fine men. Ralph died in Alaska of TB, was very ill the year I was there. Roy had lived in Portland for years and had little contact with family. All the original family are gone. Maude, Lucien's wife was the last. Pearl and I visited up there in 1862 when Maude was still alive. We stayed at Claire's and Maude came over from her oldest daughter's home to entertain us.

Claire and husband both worked. "Mother" did most of cooking and it was delicious. We visited Jean on the Sound where she and her husband Norman Nelson lived in stately grandeur away from the crowded city. He was and is the potato king of Puget Sound. They have five children, all grown now. Claire's are also grown and gone, 2 boys and 1 girl. Alice Lucile, the oldest, has been a Home Ec. teacher, probably retired by now. She has a boy Lee and girl Marjorie, both married. Betty, Jean's twin, lives in same town as Jean. I don't know of her family. They were east when we were there.

I think I've told enough about the Stearns families in the west. I've told you little of us Murphys because the Stearns name was lost to the Murphy name really.

Maybe you'd be interested a little about myself. I finished H.S. in Salt Lake City - then in 1912 went to L.A. State Normal School in Los Angeles. I took kindergarten training and after 2 years was graduated and got a position in a pretty town among orange groves to start a kindergarten there. After 3 years I applied to our Pres. Home Mission Board in New York and they sent me to teach in our mission school at Ganado, Arizona. I spent 3 years there and then went back to school to take elementary education. I went to San Diego State Normal School for 1 year, graduated and then was sent to a small Pres. Mission school in North Fork, California, up on mountains out of Fresno. It was hard work for workers were always leaving, getting sick, or marrying a forest ranger. I spent 3 years and then came home to Utah to help Mother and Dad with their work.

After 3 years there, 2 years of teaching in the small town in public school, I helped them move to California. That first year I went back to North Fork to teach public school and help in the Mission Church. The mission school was closed by then.

After that one year I came back to So. Calif., went back to school - same L.A. Normal but now called Univ. of Calif. at Los Angeles. I got my Bachelor's degree in Ed. and through a dear old Utah teacher of mine got a position in Huntington Park where he was Supt. While I was there the whole school system was taken over by Los Angeles, so I became a L.A. teacher and was with them all together 33 years. I retired in 1956 and have had a very happy retirement. I live with another only child and we've been together over 30 years. Will stick to the very end. I live in her home - 5 rooms and a big yard. We love it all but it gets harder to see to everything. So far we've been able. She isn't well at all and I'm feeling my age but so far the Lord has been so good. I leave each day ahead to Him.

Lots of love,
Iva Dell

09-01605-01 ELMER ELSWORTH STEARNS[10] (John[9], Justus[8], James[7], Rhoda[6], Thomas[5], Timothy[4], Thomas[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of rural Weston, OH, born Nov. 20, 1862 at home, Brown's Corner, Wood Co., OH, north of Fostoria at Eagleville Rd. and McClutchinville Pike (house is still standing, but is used as a garage and storage place); died Jan. 1, 1945 at home, rural Weston, OH, natural causes, buried in Weston Twp. Cem. at Weston, OH; married first Mar. 31, 1886 by N.C. Helfried at Wood Co., OH, Naomi C., daughter of William H. and Hattie (Goodenough) Buvinger, of Dayton, OH, born Oct. 31, 1867 at Dayton, OH; died , 1927 at Toledo, OH, buried in Oak Grove Cem. at Bowling Green, OH with her parents and sister, Ella. Naomi's mother was b. 1844, d. 1929; her father was b. 1844, d. 1933; her sister, Ella M. Embry, was b. 1878, d. 1937. Elmer and Naomi were both teachers. Elmer attended Weston, OH public schools before going to high school at Waterville, OH. He then spent 3 terms at Wooster College, Wooster, OH, for his teaching certificate. Elmer was a member of the Weston Lodge of IOOF No. 681, while Naomi was a member of the Kokosing Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 303 IOOF. They were members of the Disciples Church at Bowling Green. After several years of marital trouble, Elmer obtained a divorce ca 1910.

Elmer then farmed several years before spending some time in the undertaking business, then worked for Johnson Brothers Furniture Co. in Toledo, OH. He was a sailor on the Great Lakes one season - in general, a jack of all trades. He spent a year or two in Kansas for his health (he was mildly diabetic), working on wheat farms and ranches, living with relatives. Around 1916 he went to Washington State, working on a cattle ranch as a cowboy and general dairy hand. He also invested in Walla Walla, Washington Gas and Oil Co. and in furniture patents. Some of his time was also spent in the gas and oil fields there. Soon after returning to Ohio, he met Esther, who had been living with her sister and her husband for several years as she had no formal training for any remunerative position.

Elmer married second Nov. 18, 1920 by Rev. C.W. Burns at Weston, OH, Esther Louisa, daughter of James Samuel and Nancy Jane (Jennie) (Jewell) Kidd, of rural Bowling Green, OH, born Nov. 5, 1889 at Plain Twp., rural Bowling Green, OH; died Feb. 3, 1976 at daughter's home, Huron Co., Collins, OH, congestive heart failure, buried beside her husband in Weston Twp. Cem. at Weston, OH. Elmer and Esther lived in Weston, OH in a property owned by Esther. In 1930 they moved to the country on a farm owned by Elmer and remained there until their deaths. Elmer helped his brother-in-law, Charley Seitz, clear ten acres of woods. For this he received his winter supply of fuel for several years. Part of the work Elmer did, not only for Charley, but others consisted of setting dynamite charges to blow tree stumps and shatter large rocks. Although Elmer had retired from farming he did help manage the farm, being one of the first in the community to raise tomatoes, sugar beets, and soy beans.

Esther was brought up in the Plain Congregational Church. Her mother died when she was quite young. A great aunt, Sarah Keid/Kidd, came to live with them and helped raise Esther and her younger brother, Ralph. Elmer belonged to the Presbyterian Church in Weston, OH and, following their marriage, Esther also joined. She retained her membership until the church closed, then joined the Church of Christ in Weston with one of her neighbor friends, Eula Underwood.

After Elmer's death, Esther worked several seasons in the tomato canning factory in Weston, baby-sat for the neighboring families, and helped process turkeys for Thanksgiving and Christmas for several years. She belonged to the Pythian Sisters in her later years. She also belonged to the Missionary Society that met in a building (later the grange hall) on the Sandridge Road between Liberty High and Wingston Roads. She passed her time helping several widowed ladies, who couldn't drive. She spent one winter in Florida and another in California with relatives.[201]

Ida had an experience when she was sixteen. She was having her teeth straightened. Her father drove her to Fostoria to a Dr. Pelton, who was a dentist. They did some shopping and started home. As they turned onto the Pelton Road, where the Wigwam now stands, they met a motor car. This would have been a 1913 model, and the horse objected. When the dust settled, Ida was sitting waist deep in the creek, still holding her packages. She had gone over the bridge rail and then landed in the creek.[793]

09-01727-02 DANA LOGAN STEARNS[10] (Earl[9], Stephen[8], Ashbel[7], Rhoda[6], Thomas[5], Timothy[4], Thomas[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Martelle, Cedar Rapids, and Mt. Vernon, IA, born July 29, 1883 at White Oak Community, near Lisbon, IA; died Mar. 4, 1960 at home, Mt. Vernon, IA, heart trouble and old age, buried in Cedar Memorial Cem. at Cedar Rapids, IA; married Dec. 25, 1905 by L.P. Krome, minister, at Springville, IA, Nellie Olin, daughter of Jasper Eldorado and Nancy Alice (Ellison) Woods, of Marion or Mt. Vernon, IA (near Springville), born July 8, 1888 at Marion, IA. Dana was a retired machinist and owner of a garage.

Upon their marriage Dana and Nellie established their home in Martelle. Later they moved to Cedar Rapids and in 1913 the family moved to Mt. Vernon. Dana, a skilled mechanic, was a pioneer in the automobile repair business in Mt. Vernon. In 1914 he built the first building in Mt. Vernon planned especially for a garage, now occupied by the Bachman Feed Service. He sold the garage in 1920 and later opened a repair service in the former Record building, now housing the Wiese Shell Service, purchasing the building in 1945. He retired from active business about that time upon advice from his doctor, but continued to do some machine work in a shop at his home. Hobbies of woodworking, photography, and gardening also occupied much of his time.[304]

The following excerpts are from an article in the Aug. 12, 1956 Cedar Rapids Gazette:

"There's not much in the way of machine work that Dana Stearns, 72, can't do.... Like the kitchen cupboards he made recently for his wife's kitchen and the beautifully-tooled little chest made from 10 different kinds of wood to hold some of his 5,000 or so colored slides.

"'I've been making things since I was 10 years old.' Stearns explained.

'We lived in Marion then and I made tables, chairs and cupboards for the children in the neighborhood. That's how I got started.'

"Stearns has never quit making things and he's obtained, through the years, about half a dozen patents on his inventions.

"Not only has he worked on automobiles most of his life, but he built one himself a number of years ago. The 'Stearns Special' was built somewhat smaller than the Model T Ford for use of his daughter when she was about 12 years old and she used it for short trips for several years.... Last he heard of it, about 10 years ago, it was owned by a Central City resident...

"He sold Fords, Dodges and Buicks. The Model Ts came knocked down and were shipped seven to a railroad car. They had to be assembled after delivery.

"'We could sell them faster than we got them,' Stearns remembers. 'A roadster sold for about $450 and a touring car for around $650. But when you bought a car in those days the windshield and top were extras. Sometimes the lights were extra, too.'...

"He has had one of his prized possessions stored in the main street shop through the years, though -- a 1916 Buick that is still in good running order...

"The family made four trips to California in the car, the first in 1916 and the last in 1922.

"It was during these trips and later ones, in later model cars, that Stearns took many of the thousands of photographs in his collection.

"While machine work has been his favorite career, photography has been his principal hobby. He owns five cameras, a 16-millimeter movie camera, an old 8 x 10 view camera, an even older 4 x 5 camera, a 35-millimeter and a 3 x 4 camera.

"The 4 x 5 is 50 years old and the view camera almost as old. The latter has a frame of beautifully finished cherry wood...

"Most of the patents Stearns obtained were for inventions concerned with automobiles. The first was for a coil protector for the Model T. In those days when it rained the coils got wet and the car stopped running.

"Another patent was for a jack that lifted the entire car. He made the jacks and sold a few for garage use, in repairing cars. The same principle is used in jacks today, Stearns said..."

NUTS FROM THE FAMILY TREE
by Alban Emley
New York City
April 11, 1927

Up to a certain time of life, most of us are indifferent as to whom were our ancestors and from whence we sprung. Many are indifferent thereafter, probably fearing to place themselves in the position of the man who paid a secretary to look up the family tree and then paid him "hush money" to keep still about it.

Until a few days ago, ancestors and the different branches of the family were as far from my thoughts as President Coolidge's opinion of protoplasm. I happened on the name of Jay Noble Emley, a New York lawyer, and called on him. I found him to be a very splendid gentleman, six feet and two inches in height and with the high-bridged nose and general facial characteristics that are common in the family.

At his invitation I went to his lovely country home in New Jersey for the week end. Sunday we journeyed in his car to Cookstown to ascertain, if possible, in what degree we are related. He told me of a Thomas W. Emley there who has spent considerable time gathering information regarding family history. We were met at the door by this Emley and by his sister, Ida Emley-Godfrey, the latter being a very lovely and lively lady who confessed to seventy years and reminded me greatly of Aunt Ann.

I was introduced as an Emley from Denver which meant nothing to them. Mrs. Godfrey mentioned some western Emleys at Wisner, Nebraska. When it developed that I was not only born there, but was the actual son of Joseph Emley, present in the flesh, such another handshaking and laughing and talking I never expect to see again. Thomas Emley is rather deaf and did not understand, but when his sister said: "Tom, he is the grandson of cousin Joe," he warmed like unto the summer sun and I was taken to their bosoms without reservation.

Forty-three years ago, a tall man came to that very house and introduced himself as Joseph Emley from Nebraska. He was the son of the Joseph Emley who left the old home in New Jersey and went with his bride to Indiana when his family objected to the woman of his choice. He "went West" to found his own home, and apparently never returned. But his stories of his boyhood on the old New Jersey farm had made the places he had known sacred to his son, who now came to see them for the first time.

Thomas Emley (then a young man) took him to see the house wherein his father was born. He gathered nuts from the shell-bark trees under which his father had played when a boy, and which were planted shortly after the year 1700 by his great-grandfather, Samuel. He saw the old buildings on the farm, the ancient pathways, and the rail fences worming their way between the fields. He was particularly interested in what they called "the fir barn" on account of the pathetic stories he had heard of the days when "little Joseph", his father, carried feed and water to the sheep through the deep drifts of winter.

He went to the church, built by Emleys almost a century ago, and stood with bowed and bared head among the graves of ancestors sleeping in the churchyard. So great was his emotion that he wept unashamed. And Thomas Emley, understanding, wept with him. Tears filled his eyes yesterday when he told the story to me who am the first of the descendents of Joseph III to visit those graves in forty-three years.

Ida Emley-Godfrey told me of her visit to Wisner the following summer; and of being driven to the Emley homestead by young Joseph IV whom, she assured me, was quite the gay Lothario of the town. He made a favorable impression, evidently, and she worked him for a photograph which yesterday she turned over to me. In this way I came into possession of a photograph of my father when he was young and handsome and was all dressed up in a braided suit.

I have always assumed that the Emley family was a rather back-woods, no-account tribe of people who came from nowhere in particular, I modestly assumed that it is improving with each generation.

Yesterday I began digging into old records and faded documents and, Lo! I lifted my head in the pride of descent from great and upright men and women.

Here were no serfs, convicts and riff-raff of humanity. Here were high-sheriffs, statesmen and judges of the court of common pleas; men of influence and wealth, leaders in their community, free-holders, master of servants and owners of slaves.

I examined records running far back into English history, where there are documents signed by Godfrey de Emley, knight, Lord of Emley and Sprotsborough. There is an ancient coat of arms, and a motto of which a free translation would be, "Honesty is the right policy."

There are records of Emleys paying taxes to Henry VIII. There is a long line of descent to William Emley who first came to America in 1677. He came as Commissioner for the Society of Friends (Quakers) whose faith he had adopted. On account of persecutions in the old world, he and his neighbors decided to come to the New World. William Emley was one of three Commissioners sent over to arrange for the purchase of a tract of land. His name is mentioned several times in Smith's History of New Jersey.

He was a highly educated man. He spoke five languages and, among other accomplishments, was a surveyor. His compass- a huge, box-like affair- is owned today by Thomas Emley. It is to be given to the State Historical Society.

William Emley was a splendid penman, and beautiful documents in his handwriting are still in existence. I saw one of them yesterday.

The three commissioners went back to England and came again the following year (1678) with the first colonists for New Jersey. They founded a colony at Bordentown on the Delaware River, made peace with the Indians and prospered.

William Emley was accompanied by his wife, two children and four servants. He received direct from Duke of York a grant of seventeen hundred acres near the site of the present Jacobstown, New Jersey. Part of this land still is in the Emley family, having come down by Will and Testament from father to son and never has been deeded.

It was divided among three sons at the death of William. Two of these farms now are owned by Emley women who are not married. The line ends with them and the land will probably pass into the hands of others for the first time since it was granted to William Emley two hundred and fifty years ago.

Samuel Emley first moved to the land. He built a cabin and "the fir barn." I soon discovered that this meant "the far barn"; the word "fir" being ye olde Emley for "far"; a pronunciation that still is used by the old timers including Thomas. It evidently received its name on account of the distance from the second house built by Samuel, which was erected near the present public highway. The original portion of this house still is standing and is in an excellent state of preservation. It was the birthplace of Joseph I and Joseph II, son and grandson respectively of Samuel. Like his father, Samuel was a surveyor and received the instruments in the Last Will and Testament of William.

The Will was probated in the year 1704 and a certified copy bearing that date is at the old house today. This, and a number of other historically valuable documents, were dug out of the attic by the present tenant a number of years ago. Unfortunately, no care is taken of them. They are simply dumped together in a shoe box. The old family furniture, including a wonderful grandfather's clock that came from England, and a number of other priceless heirlooms, were moved to another house years ago and were later destroyed by fire.

This second house built by Samuel was the first we visited yesterday. We were welcomed by Mrs. Britton, whose people have been tenants and servants in the Emley family for several generations. She showed me the shoe-box full of documents and letters. There are deeds of conveyance to land written on parchment. There are old letters and bills of sale for slaves. One of the parchment deeds was given by Samuel Emley to William Emley (his brother) in the year 1702. It is a deed to 37 acres of land described by meters and bounds in the old English way. It doubtless was written by the original William, as the characters were even and perfect and was decorated with scrolls that are as pefect as though taken from engraved copper plates.

I walked among the buildings, many of which are literally rotting with age. I was given a handful of nuts from those same shell-bark trees planted by my great-great-great-grandfather, and I saw the path to Jacobstown which has not been changed since the first Joseph stalked solemnly over it to gain news of the victory of Washington at Trenton, a short distance away.

This farm is owned by Beulah Emley, as it will be given to the Brittans at her death unless some Emley comes out of the West and buys it for the honor of the family name. The line soon will be extinct in New Jersey. Thomas W. is the last male Emley and he is 74 years of age and unmarried.

We went to the other farm which was originally willed to John. It is in a better state of repair than the other, and really is a splendid farm. The house is very good and there is a large dairy barn with concrete floor in which were about twenty-five head of very fine cows. This farm, too, will pass out of the family at the death of its present owner. It was formerly owned by Oliver Emley who was Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, and a great man in the community. I believe the woman who now owns it is his granddaughter. She is in Florida at the present time and the farm is in possession of tenants.

Then we went to the churchyard and looked upon the graves of Emleys long dead. William was buried elsewhere and the place has been lost. But there is the headstone of Samuel, born 1694 - died 1784. A long-lived people were those old Emleys.

Near to it is the grave of his son, Joseph, born 1735 - died 1806. The original stones are over these graves. The names and dates are worn, but I could easily read them. From the headstone of Joseph I copied this verse, made by some rustic poet a hundred and twenty-one years ago:

"Why do we mourn departed friends,
Or shake at death's alarms;
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to His arms."

A hard and simple life, and a hard and simple faith was that of our forefathers. I wonder if we have bettered it in the long years that have passed since they lived and died.

It was evidently not long after Joseph's death before his descendents and relatives adopted the Baptist faith, for the churchyard is owned by the Baptist Association. The Church is a Baptist Church, built of brick, and is very well kept. It was built by Judge Oliver and another Emley in the year 1848. I saw an account book of subscriptions for the maintenance of this church which shows the position the Emleys held in the community at that time. Judge Oliver subscribed $400 and the two other Emleys subscribed $100 each. These were large sums of money in that day. The largest subscriptions, other than these, were $10.

We found that the nearest common ancestor of Jay Noble Emley and myself was Samuel, the son of William. Thomas and Ida were nearer. They descended from the first Joseph and his third wife, Phebe, who was the mother of the Joseph who "went West" to Indiana with his bride, Hannah Moore.

Some day I shall take another trip to the old home, when I will take pictures of the houses and other buildings, the fields, the rail fences, the church, and the headstones with their inscriptions. I would like to compile all available data and publish a small book on the history of the family, running back to early in the 13th century when Sir Godfrey, Lord of Emley and Sprotsborough, rode forth to the wars with his retinue and streaming banners.

Every Emley should return, as a pleasure and a duty, to this old family shrine. He should see the land that has been handed down from father to child since it was received by William Emley, direct from the Duke of York, two hundred and fifty years ago. He should see the old home built by Samuel, the decaying buildings, and the "fir barn" which will soon be a thing of the past. He should stand by the graves of ancestors long dead. He should know that he has descended from just and upright men and women, who labored long and well, whose motto was "Honesty is the right policy" and who so nobly bore an ancient and an honorable name.

A short time ago I would have thought of my children simply as my own. But now I feel that they can proudly subscribe themselves as being children of Alban, son of Joseph, son of Joseph, son of Joseph, son of Joseph, son of Samuel, son of William, son of Thomas, son of Thomas, son of Thomas, son of John, son of John------

Which takes us back to about the year 1400, and even then the lands were owned in fee by right of seisin "from ye time when ye memorie of man runneth not to the contrarie."

RECORD OF THE EMLEY FAMILY

Roger de Emley, Lord of Emley and Sprotsborough was the Emley ancestor and lived about 1300. His younger son's name was Paul de Emley. Thomas Allen Glenn reports: "Of the descent of the Emleys of Bassetlaw Hundred from this Paul de Emley, there can be no doubt." In the books Mr. Glenn examined he could not find father to son records until 1485, starting with John Emley.

John Emley, of the Hundred of Bassetlaw, in the County of Nottingham, descended from Paul, son of Roger de Emley.

William Emley, my ancestor, was born at Townsworth, Blythe Parish, Yorkshire, England, in 1648. He was a highly educated man, master of five languages, and a surveyor by trade. He was born of noble blood but gave up all title of nobility in England and joined the Society of Friends.

William was one of the Yorkshire Commissioners sent out to purchase the lands from the Indians in the Americas. He arrived at Burlington on the Delaware River in 1678 for the second time with his wife and other settlers.

William Emley settled near the present city of Trenton, on a 1000 acre tract of land. He afterwards acquired a tract of 1500 acres near Jacobstown.

William was married twice. His first wife's Pleasant, IA, born Nov. 10, 1874 (73?) at Mt. Pleasant, IA; died Feb. 6, 1902 at Mt. Pleasant, IA, buried in unmarked grave at Woodward, OK (?). Guy married second June 6, 1905 at , Emma, daughter of Daniel and Margaret (Schmitt) Schroeder, of Mt. Pleasant, IA, born Feb. 6, 1876 at Mt. Pleasant, IA; died at .

The following was sent by Jeanne Loomis Frey, as told to her by her father Loren S. Loomis:

"The year was 1902. Guy Loomis, a young man of about 30, his pretty German wife, Katherine and their baby son, Loren, were getting settled on their new land in Oklahoma Territory a few miles from the town of Woodward. Guy's parents, Alvin and Phidelia Loomis and all his brothers and sisters had also come to Oklahoma from Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. Their crops were poor in Iowa and the reports were good of this new unsettled land which had until very recently been Indian territory. Alvin and the rest of the family purchased a farm and house near Enid.

"There were no buildings yet on Guy's farm and it was late summer. There was not time to put in a garden or build a permanent house before winter set in. So, they resorted to what many settlers before them had done. They built a sod house in the side of a hill. This would see them thru the winter and in the spring as soon as the sod was broken and crops were in they would begin their permanent house. They were excited at having their own land and their visions of hope for the future were bright.

"The early fall days were sunny and bright but the days soon turned cooler and rainy. There was a kind of dampness in the sod house and Katherine began to cough - only a little at first but more frequent as the days passed. Winter progressed and the days were cold. Snow covered the ground at times and the wind spoke to them in threatening tones. Katie was ill and in the beginning they thought she only had a cold that would not let up. Guy was worried about his wife so he bundled her and the baby in their wagon and took her into town to the Dr. - a trip of several hours each way. The Dr. gave her medicine to take, which she did faithfully but her condition worsened. One night in February as Katherine lay sleeping but very ill, a storm raged outside and the hard rain was eroding parts of their little sod house. A section of the roof caved in and blew out the lantern. Guy made his way in the dark out to the wagon where he had another lantern. Upon returning to the house, he discovered that his dear wife had died in her sleep. There was little food in the house, their only cow had gone dry, and the baby needed caring for.

"As morning dawned, the heartbroken Guy did the only thing possible. He packed up their few belongings and his young son, Loren, and headed for his parents' home in Enid. He had covered his wife and left a note telling what had happened in case someone should find her. On the way he stopped at the Sheriff's office in Woodward to inform them and then proceeded to Enid.

"Baby Loren lived with his grandparents, aunts and uncles until Guy married again a few years later, marrying his first wife's sister, Emma.

"Many years later when Loren was grown he and his father tried to locate Katherine's grave but it was unmarked and the town of Woodward, as it grew and expanded, had been built over the site of their little home and her grave."

Two types of numbers will be found in this book. One, the family number, consisting of seven digits. An example 10-02770, where the 10 indicates that the family is of the tenth generation and the 02770 indicates that it is the 2770th family of that generation. The second type of number, the number of an individual as a child, consists of nine digits. An example is 10-02770-02, where the 10 indicates that the individual is a child of a 10th generation family, the 2770 indicates that the individual is a child of the 2770th family of that generation, and the 02 indicates that the individual is the second child of that family. Birth dates will indicate whether or not the correct sequence of the children is known or was known (no birthdate, or dates not in sequence, sequence was probably not known when listed).

The arrangement of the book is by family numbers. Immediately preceding each family, in the center of the line will be found the family number corresponding to that family. At the beginning of the paragraph describing a family will be found the number of the head of the family as a child. This enables one to trace a line back to the beginning, that is, back to Palmer.

Under each family those children appearing elsewhere as heads of families will have, following their birthdate, the family number of the family of which they are the head, or, if married to another Tingley descendant, that child may be the spouse in that family if not shown as the head of that family. This enables one to trace the descendants of an individual.

The numbers appearing in the index are family numbers. It will be noted that some of them have a prefix "S". Such a number following an individual's name in the index indicates that person is a spouse of a Tingley descendant. Thus GAERTNER, Helen Alma S10-02770 is the wife of Leslie Lawrence Tingley 09-01510-01 when he became head of family 10-02770. She is found in the paragraph just below the family number and before children are listed in the family.

When the number following an individual's name in the index has no "S" prefix that number is a family number under which the individual will be listed as a child. Thus, TINGLEY, Harold Lawrence 10-02770 is found in the 10th generation, 2770th family and is the second child shown. Number following his name is 11-04032, which will appear in a future volume. If no number is shown, he was not married (or it was not known) at the time the book went to press.

To trace one's own line back to the beginning, that is, back to Palmer, one should start with his own name and the number which follows his name in the index. For example, as above, 10-02770 following name TINGLEY, Harold Lawrence in index will be found in the 10th generation, 2770th family and is the second child. His father, at the beginning of the paragraph for family 10-02770 has a number preceding his name 09-01510-01. This says that he was the first child in the 1510th family of the ninth generation, Edward Clifford Tingley. By looking up the 1510th family of the ninth generation (vol. III) it will be found that Leslie Lawrence is the 1st child and the number after his name is 10-02770. Now to trace back farther repeat this process. For finding relationships between individuals see instructions in volume I, page 518.

Adopted children and their lines are carried in italics to distinguish them from those of Tingley blood.

When a person was known by his middle name rather than his first name, that name is underlined.
